Location

The property is situated on the corner of Argyll Street and Great Marlborough Street approximately 150 yards south of Oxford Circus Underground Station. Located in the heart of the West End, occupants benefit from all the amenities that the area has to offer.

Description

Palladium House (formally Ideal House) was constructed in the late 1920's for the National Radiator Company in the style of its parent company's headquarters in Manhattan. The striking polished black granite elevations and enamel friezes render it one of the most distinctive, art deco buildings in the West End. The 6th floor has been refurbished to provide bight open plan office space with parquet flooring, air cooling and views over Great Marlborough Street and Argyll Street. The common parts and entrance are to be refurbished. The 6th floor north is to be refurbished and is available from April 2019.
