

Queens House, 8/9 Queen Street, The City of London, EC4N 1SP

PRISTINE, MODERN, SELF-CONTAINED OFFICE FLOOR WITH SHARED
ROOF TERRACE | 1,760 sq ft

Location

Queen's House is conveniently located on the west side of Queen Street close to its junction with Cheapside and Poultry. Queen Street runs between Upper Thames Street at its southern end to Cheapside in the north. The thoroughfares of Queen Street and King Street (a northward continuation of Queen Street beyond Cheapside) were newly laid out, cutting across more ancient routes in the City, following the Great Fire of London in 1666; they were the only notable new streets following the fire's destruction of much of the City.^[1] Bank and Mansion House underground stations are within a short walk.

Description

This building has an attractive corner aspect, excellent natural light and access to a large roof terrace. As a testament to the quality the 4th floor was pre-let and the works to the 3rd floor have now been completed. The quality of the refurbishment is extremely high and in keeping with the recent refurbishment of the 1st & 2nd floors (now let). The entrance and lift were also comprehensively refurbished in 2019. The large sash windows are openable. The AC is NEW. There is high speed fibre into the building. It is also DDA compliant. There are also self contained private (very modern) WC's & a Shower.

Queen Street

Queen Street and King Street form part of an important route on the London Cycle Network^[3] which continues south over Southwark Bridge and north towards Moorgate. Two short sections of the street are pedestrianised, which together with a pedestrian-priority crossing of Cannon Street, forms a "Central Plaza" area. This was part of an award-winning public realm improvement scheme undertaken in 2006.
